

DLA Recruiters participated in the League of United Latin American Citizen's (LULAC) Emerge Latino Conference on Tuesday, Feb. 11, 2015, at the Marriot Marquis Hotel in Washington, D.C. More than 150 college students from across the country attended Emerge Latino, which is a multi-day Latino leadership conference that provides college students with public policy briefings on public health, education and immigration.

The final day of the conference focuses on job readiness. The DLA Recruiters provided information about career opportunities within DLA and hiring programs such as DLA's Pathways to Career Excellence Program (PaCE) and DLA's Pathways Intern Program.

